

One Out of Ten

The Poodles

The key in the door, is what I'm waiting for
Are you alone, why won't you answer the phone?
You're out of line, I'm wasting all my time
Don't wanna lose my pride

Oh, remember me, I used to be a friend
Now can't you see, I need to make a stand
No turning back, no, I won't turn around
This time you know, you've gone to far

Just before the night is over
You come home and I've gone colder
Don't be fooling yourself
I know where you've been
And that I'm one out of ten

Just before the day is breaking
Even though my heart is aching
I'll be packing my bags
'cause now I understand
I'm only one out of ten

Give me a trace, what are you looking for?
Straight to my face, then I'll be out the door
Tired of your lies, you cried
I won't deny this time you know
You've pushed me too far

Just before the night is over
You come home and I've gone colder
Don't be fooling yourself
I don't know where you been
And that I'm one out of ten

Just before the day is breaking
Even though my heart is aching
I'll be packing my bags
Now I understand
I'm only one out of ten
