

Thunderball

The Poodles

I'm not the man you think i am
We're nothing but a fake romance
Don't try to fight, don't try to say
That you could find another way
One thing you got to understand
I was born with poison in my veins
I hit you like a thunderball
Cause when you think you have it all
You're so vulnerable
Hit you like a thunderball
No, i can't be your Romeo
I gotta go
I could not help taking command, no or tread you like you're second hand
You see, i don't give lifetime guarantees
So baby, face reality
Some things you'll never understand...
I won't change the poison in my veins
I hit you like a thunderball
Just when you think you have it all
You're so vulnerable
Hit you like a thunderball
Once it gets emotional
I gotta go
Shot down like an animal
Well, no one's irreplaceable
I oughta know
I gotta set you free, yea
I'm running out of apologies
It's not your fault, how could you see
There ain't no No.1 for me
I know, it hit you like a thunderball
I don't deserve you, but my hands are tied
I can't control this hunger deep inside
I hit you like a thunderball
Yea, when you think you have it all
You're so vulnerable
Hit you like a thunderball
I used to get emotional
But not anymore
Hit you like a thunderball
Just when you think you have it all
You're so vulnerable
Shot down like an animal
You finally know
I can't be your Romeo
Gotta go...
It's just the way i am...
