The Pretty Things

If you ever baby
Feel like changing your mind
Don't think twice, just take it easy
Anything you do will please me
Just as long as you see me

And if you ever baby
Feel like starting again
All you gotta do is phone me
There is nothing you need show me
Just as long as you know me

Well, I knocked on every door
Looked on every sea and shore
Just to find that you had left me
You were a special one
Like the setting of the sun
Now it's too late to help me

Well, I knocked on every door
Looked on every sea and shore
Just to find that you had left me
You were a special one
Like the setting of the sun
Now it's too late to help me

You were a special one
Like the setting of the sun
