

A Death In The Family

The Prize Fighter Inferno

By this, with a "so long, good night, "
I wish you this, all the things that you're hiding from Hide me in a hole stowed away from nightmares
They lived here longer than I have

And I wish you the best, and I wish him the best
And I wish you the best, but I wish

La da do da da da (8x)

With the world to turn this microphone
To the day your heart explodes, or the day you get old
In these precious steps to warn this fear,
I will carry you till then from beginning through the end

(I've been walking one way to get back to her)
I'm only wishing you the best
I'm only wishing you, I'm only wishing you

(I've been walking one way to get back to her)
I'm only wishing you the best
I'm only wishing you, I'm only wishing you

When I get to hold and see you,
Till then (4x)
