

Heaven Right Now

The Proclaimers

She's everything
a married man
should look for in a girl
She's married too
but not to you
and that's part of the thrill
She's the one who makes you feel alright
Her alibi's your alibi - it's watertight

She's old enough to know of love and know that this is not But young enough to not be willing to settle for what she's got She's the one who makes you feel alright
Her alibi's your alibi - it's watertight

And if you get caught you're going to hell
but it's heaven right now

She's the one who makes you feel alright
Her alibi's your alibi - it's watertight

She's everything
a married man
She's married too
and that's part of the thrill
She's the one who makes you feel alright

She's the one who makes you feel alright
Her alibi's your alibi - it's watertight

Oh, and you're going to hell
but it's heaven right now
