

(I'm Gonna) Burn Your Playhouse Down

The Proclaimers

I've got an achin' in my heart
Arson on my mind
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down

I've got a badly broken heart
And I've had it from the start
You're giving me the run around

Well, if you play with fire
It's sure to burn, known this all of my life
Go on, be on your way, I've had my say
Well, honey, I'm through with you for life

You'll find there's one in every yard
And I'm getting mighty tired
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down

I've got an achin' in my heart
Arson on my mind
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down

I've got a badly broken heart
And I've had it from the start
You're giving me the run around

Well, don't pretend that this is the end
'Cause this time we're really through
While you were runnin' 'round, burning up the town
Well, I set my trap for you

I've got an achin' in my heart
Arson on my mind
I'm gonna burn your playhouse down
