If There's a God

The Proclaimers

If there's a God Where does He go to When disease and hunger Knock on the door?

And if there's a God How does He decide That she'll be born rich But he'll be born poor?

I don't know Can you tell me? Oh Can you tell me? Oh

If there's a God Why does He let People die slowly Wracked by pain?

And if there's a God Who blesses with children Why does He steal Some back again?

I don't know Can you tell me? Oh Can you tell me? Oh

If there's a God
Why is He letting
Violence and murder
Be done in His name?

But if there's no God Why am I lying Here in the dark Saying his name?

I don't know Can you tell me? Oh Can you tell me? Oh

I don't know Can you tell me? Oh Can you tell me? Oh
