Unguarded Moments

The Proclaimers

These unguarded moments When you move across the floor And look in my direction As I look back in yours A questions asked a pledge is made With fire in your eyes The unguarded moments remind me

Of a picture drawn upon my heart Before I was 16 And though I'd never met you It felt real inside the dream We fought and loved And fought again Till all the pain was gone But these unguarded moments lived on

You take a chance and love someone There's nothing left to lose Just let go and give in Then you'll win, then you'll win

You take a chance and love someone There's nothing left to lose Just let go and give in Then you'll win, then you'll win

These unguarded moments As you move across the floor