

For Our Name Is Chaos Eternal

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

Unholy, return to dust
Waters into blood, it's our saviour's blood
Return to me, returning what's lost
Waters into dust, it's our saviour's blood

Torture, terror, it's justified
Nail him! Betray him! Saviour crucified
Your prayers are useless,
Hail Mary's won't help you now
Kill him! Behead him! Saviour crucified

Planets aligned, Order Infernal
This is Chaos Eternal
Satan, forever reign, forever reign in my name
I'm Chaos Eternal! Kill him again!

Christ has failed, ignored the lies
Unite in mockery by its side
Ripped and torn since it was born
They all cried my name

We have sinned as have our fathers
We have acted unjustly, we have wrought iniquity
How pitiful of humans to believe...
They believed his words and they sang his praises
And he saved them for the sake of his name
So that he might make known his powers
And the water covered those who troubled them
Not one of them remained...

Your mother was a weeping whore
I nailed her head upon my wall
I raped her flesh so cold
Her name was Mary, I was told

The sirens scream and sing for me
The sirens scream and sing for me
The sirens bleed and weep for me
The sirens bleed and weep for me
The sirens scream and sing for me
Weep for me
The sirens bleed and weep for me
Weep for me

Witness our wrath, the everlasting aftermath
His life and the ceremonial knife
Your prayers are useless,
Hail Mary's won't help you now
We will win! Master! Grant us sin!

Your prayers are useless,
Hail Mary's won't help you now
Kill him! Behead him! They all cried my name
Your prayers are useless,
Hail Mary's won't help you now
Kill him! Behead him! Saviour crucified!

It's your saviour's blood that's spilt for us
It's your saviour's blood smeared on the cross
It's your saviour's blood that's spilt for us
Your prayers are useless
It's your saviour's blood smeared on the cross
