

In Sickness And In Hell

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

Your glorious kingdom in glorious lies
The throne made of flesh is soon to be filled
Angelic voices, silent soon dead
Standing in the line to be killed

Your souls collide with our massgenocide
We are the servants who preach no lies
Hell descends as lust new will end
Our infestation of darkness

In sickness and in hell I do, I'll bleed forevermore
In sickness and in hell I do, I'll crucify the whore
In sickness and in hell I do, I clean my hands with angels blood
In sickness and in hell I do, I'll forever deny your God

So they fear me for what I have done
I have walked where they didn't dare
Share with me the hell to come
With pleasure I'll drown you in despair

So they fear me for what I have done
I have walked where they didn't dare
Share with me the hell to come
With pleasure I'll drown you in despair
You are the one, the one bastard son
Surrounded by angels, the poor chosen one

His blood will be shed and we are force fed
His lies about a paradise

You are the one, the one bastard son
Surrounded by angels, the poor chosen one
His blood will be shed and we are force-fed
His lies about a paradise
