

We Watch In Silence As The Earth Turns To Blood

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

Vicious is what I am, no good can come out of me
The Hellborn is taking over me,
cast out from the pain
The cancer is spreading, the cancer of God
In a world of darkness there will be only blood
We walk among the shadows, we walk among the cursed Paving our way to destroy The Rebirth
There can't be silence in a world of screams
We're annihilators of foolish beliefs
The war rages on Slay the road to demise
Heaven denies what hell sees as lies
We are the Legion of the Forgotten
The ferocious claw that rips the heart out of you
The anger fills me up, the hatred lives in me
Savage The Mighty King, The Dark One to be
You gave birth to a son of a whore
You created this lust for war
You are spit at and desecrated
You, you have failed!

[Solo: Danny Tunker]

Choose the life you've chosen, can I feel the dark instead?
Slash the skin of those blinded, shed the blood and reign 'til death
I order you to follow me back home to the cross where you belong
We will crucify you!
I order you to follow me back home to your death where you belong
We shall crucify you!
Lost in the world of wonder,
I'm alone to face my past
It cuts so deep, the pain inside, it's haunting me
It's haunting me, to hope is to fear
Soulless heart, betrayed by the light

[Solo: Magnus Söderman]

In serenity there is fire, in serenity there is pain
So reads my elegy, so reads my testament
Understand these words, forgive and repent
The dawn is here, you cannot run
The Devil's spawn is carved in me
Forgive and repent
The grief in your eyes is ending
The Devil's spawn is carved in me
The dawn is here, you cannot run
The Devil's spawn is carved in me
The grief in your eyes is ending soon
Vicious is what I am, no good can come out of me
The Hellborn is taking over me
Cast out from the pain
Born, baptized, blasphemized

I defy the heaven-sent, listen to these words
Forgive... forgive and repent!
The dawn is here, you cannot run
The Devil's spawn is carved in me
The dawn is here, you cannot run
The dawn is here, you cannot run
The Devil's spawn is carved in me
The grief in your eyes is ending
Leave the cross behind
Come live through the eyes of The Fire God,
The Beast
March my armies, march to victory
Annihilate me, end this Christ insanity
