

Don't Give a Damn

The Prostitutes

I know you're never gonna love me anymore you took everything you could from me you made a promise that you'd never kept now, did you you took everything that you could see
but you keep on smiling
yes you keep on smiling
But you don't give a damn now
No you don't give a damn now
but you keep on smiling
yes you keep on smiling
But you don't give a damn now
No you don't give a damn now
One day I don't know when it's coming back to haunt you you say there's nothing going on at all you took everything you could and say that you still love me
you think I don't see anything at all
but you keep on smiling
yes you keep on smiling
But you don't give a damn now
No you don't give a damn now
but you keep on smiling
yes you keep on smiling
But you don't give a damn now
No you don't give a damn now you don't care for me at all now do you any more You thought that you could get the best of both worlds didn't you lady but I'm not that kind of bloke that's all
One day I don't know when
you think I don't see anything at all
but you keep on smiling
yes you keep on smiling
But you don't give a damn now
No you don't give a damn now
but you keep on smiling
yes you keep on smiling
But you don't give a damn now
You don't give a give a give a, give a, give a HEY!
I think it's over
I think it's over between us
It's over between us
I think everything's gone now Everything's lost
No magic anymore
I don't know what you're thinking
I think..
You took everything you could and I don't think there's any future (absolutely not)

At all
no way, no way,
bye bye,
one day, you'll cry..
