

Hometown Zombie

The Prostitutes

If you're gonna stay son
There's something you should know
There's something you should know
You'll turn into a zombie
And you'll never grow
No, you'll never grow
And look at all the faces of all the people round here
No, they'll never know
No, they'll never know
Just look at all the faces of all the people round here
No, they'll never know
No, they'll never know
Saw a guy the other day
He was down so low
He was down so low
Said if he had a gun in his hand
He would let it go yes he'd just let it blow
Because sitting in a bar there's a girl and she's waiting for you
And if you don't go then you'll never know
Because sitting in some bar there's a girl and she's waiting for you
And if you don't go then you'll never know
There's nothing left in this town
You don't know
There's nothing left in this town
You don't know
There nothing here in this town
And if you don't go
Then you'll never know
You can always come back here and we'll say
How did it go
Tell me how did it go
You can always come back here and rot away
I don't want to see you that way go
Because sitting in a bar there's a girl and she's waiting for you
And if you don't go then you'll never know
Because sitting in some bar there's a girl and she's waiting for you
And if you don't go then you'll never know
There's nothing left in this town
You don't know
There's nothing left in this town
You don't know
There nothing here in this town
And if you don't go
Then you'll never know
Don't turn into a home town zombie
Don't turn into a home town zombie
Don't turn into a home town zombie

Lyrics by Adrian T. Bell

Music: The Prostitutes

Taken from the album: The Prostitutes - Hometown Zombies

P&C Pale Music Int. 2010

Published by Edition BLASS Music Int. / Freibank 2010