

Only a Game

The Psychedelic Furs

Yeah we're in on the acting lost in the back with all of your roses and you yeah you, you, you
a high-heel girl
And we talk just like jazz like a song from the edge And the party goes on 'till it's late and there's nobody home and I look at your face and I see that I'm here all alone

And it's only a game
and it's only a game
and it's only a game
and it's only a part of the act and lost in the back and everything's fun, fun, fun we're so loose for you won't you stay?
with a face
and a dangerous game
for you, you, you
a high-heel girl
with your rings and your drums and a day at a time
it's you, you, you
a high-heel girl
And it's only a game
