

Soap Commercial

The Psychedelic Furs

This is my shirt, this is yours
And this is called a dream
It must be the soap you use
And mine is called So Kleen

It was so well advertised
All day on Channel Nine
This is white and this is blue
And put it on the line

Listen to this listen to this
Listen to this listen to this
Listen to this listen to this
Listen to this listen to this

I live in the factory
And we are all the same
I live in the family
And all the traffic screams

We were so well advertised
All day on Channel Nine
We live in the soap commercial
We are all a lie

Listen to this listen to this
Listen to this listen to this
Listen to this listen to this
Listen to this listen to this
Channel Nine
