

Bored Of You

The Pursuit Of Happiness

You're a rebel, you're a dude
You tried to be aloof
But she tamed your wild heart
Now you're just another lovesick goof
You were hard but you broke down
You let your guard down for a minute
Turned sweet, turned nice
You gave a shit and now you're in it
You got down on your knees
You said she was your queen
You treated her like royalty
But it only made her mean
Now she's bored -- bored of you
You killed her love with kindness, buddy
Now she's bored -- bored of you
Nice guys finish last
Hey bad boy, too late to cry
You're already out of mind
She's got a new mark in her sights
She left you standing in the dog food line
Your love made you weak
But your hate will make you strong
You're blinded by pain
But you won't be for long
You didn't have the strength to resist her carnal forces
Now she's cut you loose to run with her other broken horses
