

Renegade

The Qemists

I'm a renegade, I'm a rebel.
Don't worry about me, don't worry about me.
I'm a renegade, I'm a rebel.
Don't worry about me, don't worry about me.

For my Renegades, for my tyrants Wile out til the place get violent eardrums bleed now we suffer in silence place on smash 'til we see the sirens embrace the drama
no hope for the light lets paint it darker gimme more of what you got cos i need it faster no time for the past in an unwritten saga
You know the drill
theres an answer for all in a bottle of pills but thats run of the mill resist the easy life don't break the seal thats the start to the nightmare life passes by but its always right there Renegade rules so we just don't care live life like a rebel cos this ain't no timeshare.

I'm a renegade, I'm a rebel.
Don't worry about me, don't worry about me.

Put your drink down and get nuts
Cos there ain't one drop getting left in the glass
Down drinks then I'm ordering more
I'm causing a problem, Hard to ignore
I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade, I'm a rebel.
Don't worry about me, don't worry about me.
I don't do rules, I'm like that - that's cool
I'm Maxsta, search it on Google
Put Grime on a stage near you.

I'm a renegade
Don't worry about me, don't worry about me.

So its time for change, man
A new revolution
Red lights mean nothing so lets start the movement
Suits and ties just spread confusion
Face the reality and break the illusion
Nothing to give then you got nothing to lose Nothing to show that means there's nothing to prove Nothing to say that means theres nothing to do Well if thats the case then just Join The Q

It don't really matter how you choose to do this Force fed ideals start to lose it
It don't really matter how you're gonna get through this Feel the beat in your chest then use it
Ghost in the shell, Spirit In The System
Hear the whispers, screams are distant
See the shadow and it starts in an instant
Eyes shut tight all you do is listen.

I'm a renegade, I'm a rebel.
Don't worry about me, don't worry about me.

Put your drink down and get nuts
Cos there ain't one drop getting left in the glass
Down drinks then I'm ordering more
I'm causing a problem, Hard to ignore
I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade, I'm a rebel.
Don't worry about me, don't worry about me.
I don't do rules, I'm like that - that's cool
