

The Only Love Song

The Qemists

Where could I be more?
If I knew where to draw the line.
I've seen it all before and I won't change my mind.
No, I won't change my mind.

I could see the signs,
what you wanted to say
dropped between the lines.
Lost in translation,
hard to find,
don't keep your eyes closed
'cause my love is blind.

We lost our way,
our chance to shine.
Stand back from the place
where my love collides.
He's right in our eyes,
and you're feeling tired.

But no matter what you do,
I won't change my mind.
