

I Think She's Starting to Like Me

The Queers

I think she's starting to like me
Want me maybe someday love me
Well I think she's starting to like me

I just love her witty repartee it's so nice
If she invites me out for burgers I won't think twice
What can I do to be with you
You make me blush
My crush
You're just so cute and neat and sweet and
I think she's starting to like me

All my friends are telling me she's out of my league
My Mom suggests I give it up the girl's just a tease
But I'm in love with her
For sure

I think she's starting to like me
Want me maybe someday love me
Well I think she's starting to like me
