

Overdue

The Queers

Hello, I missed you, have you missed me too Remember crazy days that we went through It's been so long since you were mine
I left you hanging on the line

But you know I'm not fooling so let's get up and moving what do you think now, wouldn't it be nice?

Are you ready to go well then here comes the show

I'm really gonna make it up to you
I'm really gonna make it up to you
I'm really gonna make it up to you
'cause things are overdue

I learned my lesson, paid the price count me in, I won't think twice
