

Addicted To The Bone

The Rabble

I used to be alone
Confused and unknown
But now I've got my liberty
I've got my friends I came to see
And I refuse to be no one
Listen up:

I hate you
(You told me)
That you hate me
(You said so)
But we were addicted to the bone

I hate you
(You told me)
That you hate me
(You said so)
But we were addicted to the bone
To bone

Addicted to the bone
Got the words that I condone, yeah
So now I'll sing you another song
Of all the things I think are wrong
True to where I come from
The coast

I hate you
(You told me)
That you hate me
(You said so)
But we were addicted to the bone

I hate you
(You told me)
That you hate me
(You said so)
But we were addicted to the bone
To bone

You told me that we were addicted to the bone

I hate you
(You told me)
That you hate me
(You said so)
But we were addicted to the bone

I hate you
(You told me)
That you hate me
(You said so)
But we were addicted to the bone
