

Start Again

The Rabble

I remember a time so long a go
Seems like a lifetime - guess you already know
Days turned to weeks and weeks turned to years
It all ended in tears
You'd say "we're all outta hope - gonna go for a walk"
"And don't wait up cuz I don't wanna talk"
A lifetime a go - I still want you to know
We never had it at all

Out there on your own
Start again

I THREW THAT LOVE AWAY LONG A GO FOR SOMETHING NEW YEAH AND I WANTED TO START AGAIN CUZ IT WASN'T RIGHT
ME AND YOU

Now those days are gone
Another chapter in our lives
I took the chances and left that
That life behind
Been searching for so long
Trying to find the truth in all that's wrong
We lost something along the way
When our paths went and crossed that day

[Chorus]

I wanted to start again
I just gotta start again
