

This Past Week

The Radio Dept.

This past week has been a strange one
Lazy, new and good and bad Feelings come and go and change and
AC/DC, good and bad and sad

Move to a bigger city
Leave home and face the pity
I'd rather stay in bed knowing that it won't be pretty

I've wasted a year or so
I lost my will some time ago
Frustration comes when friends succeed in doing things but then again that's me

I want to be a good friend
I want to find my best friend
Someone who wants to stay
Someone who doesn't go away
