

My World

The Rascals

Ooh
Ah
Oh oh oh, my world
It's getting much better
There's laughter instead of
Tears and sorrow

My world
Really is something
It's making my heart sing
It keeps my smiling

I could never change my feelings
'Cause I wouldn't be happy (you must understand me)
Couldn't ever go on seeing the change, hey now

My world
Is always exciting
Should be inviting you
To come with me to
My world
Rolls along nicely
Sometimes precisely and free

I would never change what's coming
Must believe me, honey (it's too much, honey)
Shouldn't have to care or bother
Just to go on farther (you know you've gotta)
So come on through

Ah
Whoa, my world
It's always a party
Love everybody and everything in
My world
There's lots of people
Won't you come with me? (baby, won't you come?)
Won't you come with me? (do do do do do)
Won't you come with me?
Lo lo la la
Lo lo la la (everybody come)
Baby won't you come?
