

I Can Hardly Believe You're Mine

The Raspberries

Darlin' I was feelin' somethin' missing
In my life
Never seeing, never caring to try
And you touched me and you made me feel so different
So alive
I was nowhere, till you opened my eyes

Oh baby,
I can hardly believe you're mine
Baby,
I can hardly believe you're mine

Darlin' when you're lyin' here beneath me
All I know
Is I love you, more than I ever show
But you greet me without words it seems
And still the feeling grows
I was nowhere, till your love touched my soul

Oh baby,
I can hardly believe you're mine
Baby,
I can hardly believe you're mine

Why d'you suppose
How my heart would filled
With so much emptiness
Now I've found you
You're surrounding my heart
With sweet, sweet tenderness

You greet me without words it seems
And still the feeling grows
I was nowhere, till your love touched my soul

Baby,
I can hardly believe you're mine (yeah)
Whoa Baby,
I can hardly believe you're mine

Baby,
I can hardly believe you're mine
Baby,
I can hardly believe you're mine
