

Railroad Tracks

The Raveonettes

Take me off to times I think I used to like
Leave me by the railroad tracks tonight
Everytime I stare right out the broken glass
I feel like going home to someplace else
Take me off to times (dreams) I think I used to like (have)
Leave me by the railroad tracks tonight
It feels so good to stay a while and think of you
I think you're off to times I used to know
