

When Night is Almost Done

The Raveonettes

When night is almost done
And sunrise grows so near
That we can touch the spaces
It's time to smooth the hair

And get them dimples ready
And wonder we could care
For that old faded midnight
Frightened but an hour

Hey
Do you think you're on your own
Hey
In this old faded midnight
Hey
Somewhere you go on
Hey
And I prepare to die

When our love dies
Do we die too
When the sun drowns
Do we drown too
I wasted my time with you tonight
I wish I could see behind your eyes
Another day another year
What goes on behind your tears
