

Bitter and the Sweetness

The Ready Set

Troublemaker look on your face
Followed by a smile and I melt away
It ain't always been this lovely
We turn the ice and start a fire, melt away

It don't happen overnight
It's laughing after fights
Knowing which song I should sing to make you smile again
Your favorite flowers
How I know before you say, "It's gonna be okay"

Love, I think we got time to make mistakes
Bitter and the sweetness
I just love the taste
Like the time we got stuck out in the rain
When you took my hand said, "Baby, we should stay"

You give me trouble in the best way
When you let your hair down I can't look away
You've just always been that lovely
We turn the dark into light

It don't happen overnight
It's laughing after fights
Knowing which song I should sing to make you smile again
Your favorite flowers
How I know before you say, "It's gonna be okay"

Love, I think we got time to make mistakes
Bitter and the sweetness
I just love the taste
Like the time we got stuck out in the rain
When you took my hand said, "Baby we should stay"

Troublemaker
I cannot play her
When I wrote a couple chords, little verse
Something simple, make it work
You'll be staying close

Love, I think we (got time to make mistakes)
Bitter and the sweetness
I just love the taste
Like the time we (got stuck out in the rain)
When you took my hand said, "Baby, we should stay"

Got time to make mistakes
Bitter and the sweetness
I just love the taste
Like the time we got stuck out in the rain
When you took my hand said, "Baby, we should stay"
