

That's All I Know

The Reason

Oh these days I've been gone
I've been not inside my head
A long snooze lost in booze
A night I'll soon forget
Wrong turn, toss and turn
Wide awake in bed
She sleeps next to me
But I don't get no rest

Oh I think soon I'm gonna get myself in trouble
You can't keep yourself out of harm
Maybe this is what we get, holding on for one more kiss
Only to wake alone
But that's all I know

Oh these days I've been wrong
Many nights just don't compare
I do think it's better, I hope I remember
I'm sleeping once the morning comes
I'm sleeping once the morning comes

Soon I'm gonna get myself into trouble
You can't keep yourself out of harm
Maybe this is what we get, holding on for one last kiss
Only to wake alone
But that's all I know
