

Wide Is the Gate

The Red Jumpsuit Apparatus

Wide is the Gate Lyrics
We're not the weak or the broken
We're not the lost or confused
We'll never change our direction
Screamingg (Let me hear you?)

For all the lies that you told us
For all the stories you sold us
I'll never lose my conviction
I WILL BURY YOU

Don't lose your soul and fall into the hole that this world has dug
You must prove them wrong and take back what belongs to you
We've already won

When you think you were better achieved is getting people to be lieve you're just a fairy tale
I'm not as easily deceived - the money from me?
I'm on a path to taking back history

For all the lies that you told us
For all the stories you sold us
I'll never lose my conviction
I WILL BURY YOU

Don't lose your soul and fall into the hole that this world has
dug
You must prove them wrong and take back what belongs to you
We've already won

If you can see there's a war that is coming then I feel sorry f or you
Make sure you're on the side that is winning
You cannot run from the truth

Don't lose your soul and fall into the hole that this world has
dug
You must prove them wrong and take back what belongs to you
We've already won
