

You Can't Trust Anyone These Days

The Red Jumpsuit Apparatus

You're a liar

I'm running in circles
And I can't seem to find my way now
Praying for a miracle
But sometimes, things just don't work out

I gave up everything for you
I gave up everything, it's true, for you

You're a liar (2x)

You said you'd always be my friend
But now you're leaving in the end
Oh, no; the joke's on me again (2x)

There'll come a day
When everything you've ever done
Will come back to remind you
Of the person that you have become, a liar

You're a liar

I gave up everything for you
I gave up everything, it's true, for you

You're a liar (2x)

You said you'd always be my friend
But now you're leaving in the end
Oh, no; the joke's on me again (2x)

I gave up everything for you

You said you'd always be my friend
But now you're leaving in the end
Oh, no; the joke's on me again (2x)

You're a liar (3x)
