The Redwalls

Oh Maria all has been in vain
Oh Maria
All we know that's changed

'Cause nothing's turning out
the way I planned
And darling I just hope you understand

And though nothing's really over
'til it's through
And darling I still believe in you

Oh Maria
Won't you come out tonight
I'd love to see ya
Standing under the light
With the moon going by
And them stars in the sky
Hold your head up high for me

Oh Maria
Won't you come out tonight
I'd like to see ya
Standing under the light
With that moon in the sky
And those stars in your eyes
Hold your head high for me
Please

oh Maria all that's passed us by oh Maria hang your head and cry
'Cause nothing's turning out
the way we planned
And darling don't you think
I'll understand
But nothing's really over
'til it's done
And if we haven't lost
I guess we've won

Oh Maria
Won't you come out tonight
I'd like to see ya
Standing under the light
All them stars in the sky
With that moon in your eyes
Hold your head up high for me
Please

Oh Maria
Won't you come out tonight
I'd like to see ya
All the stars in the sky

Please
