

Deviance

The Reindeer Section

I'll tear the house down brave all the fire trials eat my own heart out feed wiser mortals

I'll eat my body away concoct a reason to stay I'll wear my disgust on my sleeve find a new reason to leave

I'm tame now darling you've pulled my heart out with all the mental whispers and lying you turned me round on myself I can't tell who i should fight a day will come and we'll know who was right all along
