

Little Mascara

The Replacements

You and I fall together
You and I sleep alone
After all, things might be better
After one, and there's one that's long gone

For the moon you keep shootin'
Throw your arms up in the air
For the kids you stay together
You nap 'em and you slap 'em in a highchair

Well all you ever wanted
Was someone to take care of ya
All you're ever losin' is a little mascara
Little mascara, little mascara

Afternoon, things are quiet
Settle back now if you can
Stations clip by like a rocket
Don't you worry if you wonder why he ran

Well all you ever wanted
Was someone to take care of ya
All you're ever losin' is a little mascara
Little mascara, little mascara

Let to you cry, cry
Let to you cry your eyes out
Let to you cry, let to you cry
Let to you cry your eyes out

All you ever wanted
Was someone ...
All you're ever losin' is a little mascara
Little mascara, little mascara

Let to you cry, let to you cry
Let to you cry your eyes
Let to you cry, never cry, never cry your eyes
Cry, never cry, never cry, your eyes, cry, cry
