

Drunken Voices

The Restarts

I've got a funny feeling coming over me
Getting bored of sitting at home watching the TV
Got to get out into the night the time is here
To meet some mates and consume large quantities of beer

Now the sessions kicking off - spirits are high Fucking racket of drunken voices - reaching the sky

Rat- arsed the liquid vision blurs the setting sun
A beggars banquet its time for the scum to have their fun
Knock one back for all our mates who are no longer here
Coz I know where ever the fuck they are they're drinking loads of beer
