

Death Means Nothing At All

The Retrosic

My gone beloved
You are this divine
You had this
All your lifetime

Your gentle touch
One pure kiss
That's all
Which I have to miss

'Cause in my mind
You will remain
Covert from torture
Far from pain

Death means
Death means nothing
Death means nothing at all

It goes beyond life and death
To love you means nothing instead
You are the most beautiful thing
You are the truth I carry within

Come on - dance with me
It's quite more but a fantasy
We are tied together
We are forever - forever together

I'm bereaved of the sweetest
I'm bereaved of the best I ever had
I'm bereaved by the one
The one and only god
