

Taste Of Death

The Retrosic

Have you ever been in hell before?
Have you ever left your rotten core?
Have you ever thought it will come this far:
Buried in a tiny jar?

Wake up from your dream of full control
Wake up, destination depends on your soul
Wake up, now it's time to see
What they have called eternity

You have to taste death for being real alive
You have to taste death for being real alive
