Lapse Of Reality

the ring of fire

In the misty silence dark
Feeling like my soul is fading
Emptiness reveals my heart
Everything becomes forsaken
I stare at these walls surrounding me
Each tick of the clock is misery

If I lost my memory
Would you still remember me
Blinded momentarily
A lapse of reality

Now the light has come and gone Feeling like my life is broken Useless words just come and go Lost before they can be spoken I try to explain impulsively With lines of insane geometry

If I lost my memory Would you still remember me Blinded momentarily A lapse of reality
