

Kings Are Falling

The Riot

Deep within the city, hidden in it's walls they hide the people and the places far below
But they're strong enough and they're hard enough to recify the anger in the minds of all subversive men who know.

Still there waiting far behind yea.
Soon he'll sound his call, then we'll stand or fall

Kings are falling destinies calling for this time, oh this time
we will be free, yea.
Kings are falling destinies calling in my mind, in my mind I wi ll be free yea, I will be free.

Darkened inner city, one by one they fall along the border of t he places which they came.
Well we're mad enough and we're bad enough to seperate illusion
from the madness all the faces look the same
Now they're waiting for his call.
Soon we'll hear his cry, then we'll stand and fight.

Kings are falling destinies calling for this time, oh this time
we will be free, yea.
Kings are falling destinies calling in my mind, in my mind I wi ll be free yea, I will be free.

Now they're waiting for his call.
soon we'll hear his cry, then we'll stand and fight.

Kings are falling destinies calling for this time, oh this time
we will be free, yea.
Kings are falling destinies calling in my mind, in my mind I wi ll be free yea, I will be free.
