

The King Is In This Place

The Riot

Every knee shall bow
Every tongue confess you are King
Every eye shall see
Every heart will hear the calling of your majesty
The mountains will quake
The seas will rise
To the sound of your voice
The earth will shake
As your people give you praise

Hallelujah
The king is in this place
Hallelujah
We're overwhelmed by your grace
Hallelujah
Let your spirit fall in this place
Hallelujah
We need your touch again

There is none like you
No one like you adonai
No eye has seen
No ear has heard
No mind has thought what you have in store
Your church will rise
Lift our hands up high
Your name be glorified
Your kingdom is near
Woahh... Salvation is here

Hallelujah
The king is in this place
Hallelujah
The king is in this place
Hallelujah
The king is in this place
Hallelujah
The king is in this place
