

Twist Of Fate

The Riot

Feeling trapped I'll soon succumb
The hour strikes I'll turn and run
A piece of dream inside my mind.
I feel entombed I must remove
With depth of reason I should prove
Give me trust for all is true
Only one, I enlist to follow on
From the dust all our ashes will be gone
That's right.

So I travelled on.
On into the darkened night.
Only you don't turn me down.
So I carried on, on into the dark and light.
Twist of fate is all I found. Yea.

As I clean and dress my wound
The cast of blood and bone I lose
The penchant filtered through the sky
Only fortune my mistake
Soon to pay for vows I break
I'll search for solice deep inside
Only one, I enlist to follow on.
From the dust, all our ashes will be gone.
That's right

So I travelled on.
On into the darkened night.
Only you don't turn me down.
So I carried on, on into the dark and light.
Twist of fate is all I found. Yea.

So I travelled on.
On into the darkened night.
Only you don't turn me down.
So I carried on, on into the dark and light.
Twist of fate is all I found. Yea.
