

That Won't Happen

The Roches

(Terre Roche and Andy Bloch)
You may be sorry
But I don't want you to be sorry
I see the open air
What a paradise and you
And me go there
That won't happen here
Just a fantasy
Is it real?
It might be better
But do you want it to be better?
And we could lose to try
Then again the time will pass
And not say why
That won't happen here
Just a fantasy
Is it real?
It might be over
And I don't want it to be over
I hear the sad refrain
But a broken heart is all
And all is pain
That won't happen here
Just a fantasy
Is it real?
