

Show Me Everything You've Got

The Rocket Summer

Slide your feet, create the shock touch another, watch it pop live a little, live a lot and show me everything you've got

Oh, cause it takes some time and just a little bit good? reality won't hurt for longer than it should just talking about pain that is there face the fact, don't act like you don't care

Cause you gotta stop and show it, just so I know you know it maybe just a little bit, oh come on admit it right now cause I know that it won't be over till it's gone so let it be gone

And show me everything you've got
I know you're scared
But let your walls just drop
You gotta take that step, and your heart, just let it pour out

Now I know it's hard to be something that you don't think you are but it's hard for me to even try to understand why you are beating your own heart cause you gotta try, just try to be honest and I will be honest all these things that I say and I'll listen clear, whether brave or you're modest, I'm here don't hold back, don't hesitate, don't disappear

And show me everything you've got
I know you're scared
But let your walls just drop
You gotta take that step, and your heart, just let it pour out

And show me everything you've got
I know you're scared
But it's time for you to stop
You gotta take that step, and your heart, just let it make sound

So hey, just let it pour out don't let your past begin to let you down just sing it out, just let it make sound and as it will hurt, it will be healed and found 'cause it's normal that emotional pasts can spawn emotionless dads, mothers, and nation's flags so show your face, no don't be afraid, no don't be afraid to show your face

After all these things I've learned bad things I do and don't deserve can easily just shape my life or shape the way I start to die

No, cause it's up to me if I dwell much longer than I should and I'll hold my tears for years thinkin' it's doing me good so just start right now, just make a vow, you'll let your heart just sing it out, sing it out

And show me everything you've got

I know you're scared

But let your walls just drop

But it's time for you to stop
