

Jiving Sister Fanny

The Rolling Stones

Jiving Sister Fanny told her man of the dirty byway
Uh huh, huh huh,
She even did the favor for the man on the broad highway
Uh huh, huh huh,
She got me walkin' 'round
Then she got me going down
Hey, said the policeman
Get me quicky out of town
Woo who child you got me walkin' down the wrong highway
Hey hey hey hey

Now Jiving Sister Fanny got the brain of a dinosaur
Uh huh, huh huh,
She took my motley Billy and she broke up my electric guitar
Uh huh, huh huh,
She got the way around,
Yes she's got me out of town
The man on the juniper
Gonna put me out of town
Ooh ooh child you got me walkin' down a broad highway
Uh huh, huh huh

Now, now, it's time thank y'all

Yeah if you got the ride boy if you got the right a way
If you ever go to bed you finally imagine how the way you play
You got the shy part
You got the red suit
A man jumping hunky
With a skull and a straddle bar
Voodoo child you got me walkin' down the broad highway
Uh huh, huh huh

Oh yeah ah ah ah

You got me walkin' 'round
Yes, you got me way around
I'm not in for a girl
That really wants to tie you down
Ooh child you got me walkin' down the broad highway

Na na na na na na
Hey hey hey yeah yeah wah ooh
Na na na na
