[Black Thought]
It looks like another one's comin around [3X]
So the Black Thought gots to get down y'all, yeah
[in background: "Pass the what? (Pass the popcorn)" 4X]
It looks like another one's comin around [3X]
So The Square Roots gotta get down, bust it
Yo, I wrote this, basement, Never Never Tunnels type portion
Just to accompany some audio distortion
Bust the popcorn, drop it onto my cassette and bust it, Kid Crumbs, how ya feel? (I'm feelin blessed man)
Yeah, The Square Roots be the setters of examples
Findin rhythm in the static of your samples
Makin you move to the groove as we sooth
the ear of the listener on the musical Prisoner G, now you're free you can be all you wanna be
Go where you want or go and see all you wanna see
Because yo, your ambitions I won't neglect
And to the brothers who ain't here, nuff respect
So BROther ?uest, how ya livin, what ya givin black?
To me the brother with the linens and the applejack;
busy til the break of dawn
The first verse is poured I pass the popcorn
[in background: "Pass the what? (Pass the popcorn)" 4X]
It looks like another one comin around [3X]
So the Black Thought had to get down y'all, yeah
[in background: "Pass the what? (Pass the popcorn)" 4X]
It looks like another one comin around [3X]
?uestion would you come and get down, bust it, c'mon
[?uestlove]
Check it out, secondly
it's me the BROther ?uest from the S-Q-T (Square Roots)
And he's Black Thought, the boy you know is (FUNKY)
The rhythms I recycle sometimes prehistoric
The mic for the popcorn's like it's metaphoric (metaphoric baby)
So many different factors in the ?uestion's style
Arrythmic by the end, I'm givin more than one child
Abstract soloist comin from the heart
All the way from Philly, from the West part
Relax your mind and let your body be at rest
Flow in slow mo', and let the BROther manifest
Now the second verse has been pourn
On to Kid Crumb I pass the popcorn
[in background: "Pass the what? (Pass the popcorn)" 4X]
[Black Thought]
It looks like another one comin around [3X]
?uestion ripped the set and got down baby, yeah
