[Black Thought] I rip the vocal backflip yo the kid is a bad bro I can drip it hipper than dip into calyp-so A-dios, amigo, which means I gots ta G-O Makes you wonder bout my number Guess my address or my P.O., here's a hint: I'm from Phila with a Del but not the Rio Well, I'm guessing here is like exactly where the Phi go Now, we got the Phila-Del-Phi why not top it off with an A? The Philadelphiadic rhythmatic way I'm straight from Philly Silly but rugged then a hill-billy Just like I said before I sport my skully when it's chilly My cap is from The Lay Up, my bows from The Gilly The Roots, is out to blow up like a clip from out the milli or the oo-wop, I do drop, gizzantic, the crew wop From out the darkest field I goes to pick the funk crop You can't deny the props so stop before your fronts get loosened, introducing, The Roots y'all..
