

Blue Eyes

The Rosebuds

You were trying to give off a silent sound
But you found another path and you're walking on the glass
And you were trying to get ahead again
Will you like a life alone, cause you know who's looking old?
Cuddle trial all in the visiting
And you're standing on the edge
Think you're falling off again
The same song would have won the show
And your bed is in the sore
Your heart is in the sore
And hope, it flies in your...

You're swimming in the blue eyes
You're swimming in the blue eyes
You're swimming in the blue eyes
You're swimming in the blue eyes

You're hanging your clothes on the large evening sun
But I'm wondering when neglected at your distant strolling arms
I'm petrified by the hardness(?) in the fact
And my cups are sleeping under by the speed these things can pass
The days alone have familiar bloom
Living up in the world, crafting laughter, coming through
Brothers dance with disguise up on his face
But the spirit in your eyes and the deepness in your smile
It turns me into ?

I'm swimming in the blue eyes
Swimming in the blue eyes
Swimming in the blue eyes
Swimming in the blue

Dash of lights in my head
Where the nights are warm
You're half asleep
Floating in sunwater
Brim it on the shore

You're swimming in the blue eyes
Swimming in the blue eyes
Swimming in the blue eyes
Swimming in the blue eyes
