

Sand + Silence

The Rosebuds

Sometimes I don't understand
The sand and silence instead
Of loving like you want to
Loving like I want to
My heart is pounding again
See imperfections instead
Of what I wanna show you
What I wanna show you

I bought this in the stretch of light
Lonely blue above
Gimme a cloud of something right here!
Cause I'm unfolding in the light right here!
I came a long long way to see ya
And that's so stressed out for eva in front of me

And I've even been lookin' under the towels
To see what pulls you back each time
And I ain't found it yet!

Sometimes I don't understand
The sand and silence instead
Of loving like you want to
Loving like I want to
My heart is pounding again
See imperfections instead
Of what I wanna show you
What I'm gonna do

We're not pushing side to side
Feel like impossible
But I don't wanna chase a line
That has already been drawn
I wanted you to see that
I've made one of my own
See, I can be alive, and you can be alive
And we both feel alive
Or I could just be here meet you in the river too
Or maybe I can have that same feeling pool on me too

Sometimes I don't understand
The sand and silence instead
Of loving like you want to
Loving like I want to
My heart is pounding again
See imperfection instead
Of what I wanna show you
What I wanna show you

Come ova here, take my hand
They say got real here instead(?)
Something to hold on to
Yeah
I got the line in my hand
You keep the time in your head
Don't let her pull you

Or just fool you

Sometimes I don't understand
