

Second Bird Of Paradise

The Rosebuds

So you're knelled down
Squinting cowardly and half asleep
You've been firing
Only barely clipping her little wing

I'm waiting, with a mirror in front of me
Complicated dance move
I'm waiting, with a mirror in front of me
Complicated dance move

She's my sister, and she floats
Like a bird in the canopy
I'm listening, so let's go
Sight locked, grit your teeth

I'm waiting, here I am brilliant, aim at me
Complicated dance move
She's my sister, and she floats
Like a bird in the canopy
She floats like a bird in the canopy
