

Shut The World

The Royal Concept

Start of show tonight they're lighting up the sky
No I didn't plan on seeing you walk by Oh god I wish you'd stay

We're gonna live and die young
We're gonna live and die young

I'd rather be a ticking bomb than a fading light
I keep staring at that empty seat again
And I know this night I'll probably just end up high out of my mind

We're gonna live and die young
We're gonna live and die young

I'd rather be a ticking bomb than a fading light
I see the riot grow see the riot grow
I see the skyline glow see the skyline glow
And now I've lost the words but the masses know
They all sing for you
It's always been about you

Now I'm swaying in my bunk bed coast to coast Guess I'll see you once or twice this year at most and pretend we're not occupied

We're gonna live and die young
We're gonna live and die young

I'd rather be a ticking bomb than a fading light
I see the riot grow see the riot grow
I see the skyline glow see the skyline glow
And now I've lost the words but the masses know
They all sing for you
It's always been about you

And then show tonight
I miss the Stockholm sky
And I didn't plan on seeing you walk by

I see the riot grow see the riot grow
I see the skyline glow see the skyline glow
And now I've lost the words but the masses know
They all sing for you
It's always been about you
It's always been about you

We're gonna live and die young
We're gonna live and die young
